Defendant.)

I.

BACKGROUND¹

On September 5, 2007, Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo was the driver of a vehicle that attempted to enter the United States, through the Calexico, California East Port of Entry, from Mexico. The primary officer received a negative declaration from Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo who stated that she was the registered owner and going to Wal-Mart. The officer noticed what he believed to a strong air freshener type smell emitting from the vehicle and believed that the vehicle was "extremely" clean. While inspecting the dashboard area of the vehicle, the officer observed non-factory material covering the defroster vents and referred Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo to secondary inspection.

¹ Unless otherwise stated, the "facts" referenced in these papers come from government-produced documents that the defense continues to investigate. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo does not admit the accuracy of this information and reserves the right to challenge it at any time.

At secondary inspection 42 packages were discovered in the dashboard and gas tank of the vehicle. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo was arrested and subsequently interrogated despite her request for an attorney. During the interrogation, Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo denied knowledge of the narcotics in the vehicle.

Prosecution was authorized and, on October 31, 2007, the grand jury returned a true bill of indictment charging Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo with violating 21 U.S.C. §§ 952, 960, 841 & 18 U.S.C § 2 - Importation of Marijuana, Possession of Marijuana with Intent to Distribute, and Aiding and Abetting. These motions follow.

II.

MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo moves for the production by the government of the following discovery. This request is not limited to those items that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any government agency. See generally Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995); United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989).

(1) Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo's Statements. The government must disclose to Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo all copies of any written or recorded statements made by her; the substance of any statements made by her that the government intends to offer in evidence at trial; any response by her to interrogation; the substance of any oral statements which the government intends to introduce at trial and any written summaries of her oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of government agent; any response to any Miranda warnings that may have been given to her; as well as any other statements by her. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A). The Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the government must reveal all Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo's statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to make any use of those statements. Additionally, the government must "disclose any written record which contains reference to a relevant oral statement by Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo which was in response to interrogation, without regard to whether the prosecution intends to use the statement at trial." Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 advisory committee notes (1991 Amendment) (emphasis added).

(2) Arrest Reports, Notes, Dispatch Tapes, and Audio/Video Recordings. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo also specifically requests that all arrest reports, notes, and dispatch or any other audio/video recordings that relate to the circumstances surrounding arrest or any questioning, be turned over. This request includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, in field communication between officers, transcripts or other documents in which statements of Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo or any other discoverable material is contained. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo includes in this request any redacted portions of the Report of Investigation ("ROI") and any subsequent ROIs that the case agent or any other agent has written. This is all discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). See also Loux v. United States, 389 F.2d 911 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 393 U.S. 869 (1968); United States v. Johnson, 525 F.2d 999 (2d Cir. 1975), cert. denied, 424 U.S. 920 (1976); United States v. Lewis, 511 F.2d 798 (D.C. Cir. 1975); United States v. Pilnick, 267 F. Supp. 791 (S.D.N.Y. 1967).

Arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, audio/video recordings, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant are available under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and (c), Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(I). Preservation of rough notes is specifically requested, whether or not the Government deems them discoverable at this time.

(3) Brady Material. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to her on the issue of guilt and/or that affects the credibility of the government's case. Impeachment, as well as, exculpatory evidence falls within Brady's definition of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

(4) Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under The Sentencing Guidelines. As discussed above, this information is discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). This request includes any cooperation or attempted cooperation by Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo, as well as any information that could affect any base offense level or specific offense characteristic under Chapter Two of the Sentencing Guidelines. Also included in this request is any information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo's criminal history, or any other application of the Guidelines.

(5) Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo's Prior Record. Evidence of prior record is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B). Defense Counsel specifically requests a complete copy of any criminal record. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests all evidence, documents, records of judgments and convictions, photographs and tangible evidence, and information pertaining to any prior arrests and convictions.

(6) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. Evidence of prior similar acts is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(c) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), "upon request

1 of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the general nature
 2 . . .” of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at trial. Sufficient
 3 notice requires the government to “articulate precisely the evidential hypothesis by which a fact of 4 consequence may be inferred from the other acts evidence.” United States v. Mehrmanesh, 689 F.2d 822, 830
 5 (9th Cir. 1982) (emphasis added; internal citations omitted); see also United States v. Brooke, 4 F.3d 1480,
 6 1483 (9th Cir. 1993) (reaffirming Mehrmanesh and reversing convictions).

7 This includes any “TECS” records (records of prior border crossings) that the government intends
 8 to introduce at trial, whether in its case-in-chief, impeachment, or rebuttal. United States v. Vega, 188 F.3d
 9 1150, 1154-55 (9th Cir. 1999). Although there is nothing intrinsically improper about prior border crossings,
 10 they are nonetheless subject to 404(b), as they are “other acts” evidence that the Government must produce
 11 before trial. United States v. Vega, 188 F.3d 1150, 1154-55 (9th Cir. 1999).

12 Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests that such notice be given at least four (4) weeks before trial to 13 give the defense time to adequately investigate and prepare for trial.

14 (7) Evidence Seized. Evidence seized as a result of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant,
 15 is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(c), and Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests it.

16 (8) Tangible Objects. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests, under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C), the 17 opportunity to inspect and copy as well as test, if necessary, all other documents and tangible portions objects,
 18 including photographs, books, papers, documents, photographs of buildings or places or copies of thereof
 19 which are material to the defense or intended for use in the government’s case-in-chief or were obtained from 20 or belong to her.

21 Specifically, Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests color copies of all photographs in this case in 22 the Government’s possession.

23 (9) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests any evidence that any 24 prospective government witness is biased or prejudiced against Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo, or has a motive to 25 falsify or distort his or her testimony. Pennsylvania v. Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39 (1987); United States v. Strifler,
 26 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988).

27 (10) Impeachment Evidence. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests any evidence that any prospective 28 government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether any witness has made a statement favorable to Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613. Such evidence is discoverable under Brady v. Maryland, supra. See United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988) (witness' prior record); Thomas v. United States, 343 F.2d 49 (9th Cir. 1965) (evidence that detracts from a witness' credibility). All of this is relevant impeachment information.

(11) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any criminal conduct. United States v. Chitty, 760 F.2d 425 (2d Cir. 1985).

(12) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, tending to show that any prospective witness's ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is impaired; and any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an alcoholic. United States v. Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988); Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 224 (4th Cir. 1980).

(13) Witness Addresses. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests the name and last known address of each prospective government witness. See United States v. Napue, 834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United States v. Tucker, 716 F.2d 576 (9th Cir. 1983) (failure to interview government witnesses by counsel is ineffective); United States v. Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense has equal right to talk to witnesses). Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo also requests the name and last known address of every witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will not be called as a government witness. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984).

(14) Name of Witnesses Favorable to Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests the name of any witness who made any arguably favorable statement concerning her or who could not identify her or who was unsure of her identity, or participation in the crime charged. Jackson v. Wainwright, 390 F.2d 288 (5th Cir. 1968); Chavis v. North Carolina, 637 F.2d 213, 223 (4th Cir. 1980); Jones v. Jago, 575 F.2d 1164, 1168 (6th Cir.), cert. denied, 439 U.S. 883 (1978); Hudson v. Blackburn, 601 F.2d 785 (5th Cir. 1979), cert. denied, 444 U.S. 1086 (1980).

(15) Statements Relevant to the Defense. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests disclosure of any statement that may be "relevant to any possible defense or contention" that he might assert. United States v.

1 Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105 (9th Cir. 1982). This includes grand jury transcripts that are relevant to Ms.
 2 Mendoza-Delgadillo' motion to dismiss the indictment.

3 (16) Jencks Act Material. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests all material to which she is entitled
 4 pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500, reasonably in advance of trial, including dispatch tapes. A 5 verbal acknowledgment that “rough” notes constitute an accurate account of the witness’ interview is
 6 sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under § 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373
 7 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963).

8 (17) Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), Ms. Mendoza-
 9 Delgadillo requests all statements and/or promises, expressed or implied, made to any government witnesses,
 10 in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which could arguably be used for the 11 impeachment of any government witnesses.

12 (18) Reports of Scientific Tests or Examinations. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D), Ms.
 13 Mendoza-Delgadillo requests the reports of all tests and examinations conducted upon the evidence in this
 14 case. Including, but not limited to, any fingerprint testing done upon any evidence seized in this case, that is 15 within the possession, custody, or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the 16 exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government, and which are material to 17 the preparation of the defense or are intended for use by the government as evidence in chief at the trial.

18 (19) Henthorn Material. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests that the prosecutor review the personnel
 19 files of the officers involved in this arrests, and those who will testify, and produce to her any exculpatory
 20 information at least two weeks prior to trial and one week prior to the motion hearing. See United States v.
 21 Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991). In addition, she requests that if the government is uncertain whether
 22 certain information is to be turned over pursuant to this request, that it produce such information to the Court
 23 in advance of the trial and the motion hearing for an in camera inspection.

24 (20) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests disclosure of the 25 names and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case. To the extent
 26 that there was any informant, or any other tip leading to a TECS hit in this case Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo
 27 requests disclosure of the names and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used
 28 in this case, and in particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or

1 otherwise participated in the crime charged against her. The government must disclose the informant's identity
2 and location, as well as disclose the existence of any other percipient witness unknown or unknowable to the 3 defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 61-62 (1957). Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo also requests
4 disclosure of any information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v.
5 United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors,
6 payments, or threats were made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

7 (21) Expert Witnesses. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests disclosure of the identities of any expert
8 witnesses the government intends to call at trial as well as "a written summary of testimony that the 9 government intends to use," including the "witnesses' opinions, the bases and the reasons for those opinions,
10 and the witnesses' qualifications." Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

11 (22) Personnel Records of Government Officers Involved in the Arrest. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo
12 requests all citizen complaints and other related internal affairs documents involving any of the immigration
13 officers or other law enforcement officers who were involved in the investigation, arrest and interrogation of 14 Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo. See Pitchess v. Superior Court, 11 Cal. 3d 531, 539 (1974). Because of the sensitive
15 nature of these documents, defense counsel will be unable to procure them from any other source.

16 (23) Training of Relevant Law Enforcement Officers. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests copies of 17 all written, videotaped or otherwise recorded policies or training instructions or manuals issued by all law
18 enforcement agencies involved in the case (United States Customs Service, Border Patrol, INS, Department
19 of Homeland Security, etc.) to their employees regarding: (a) the handling of vehicles suspected to be 20 transporting contraband across the port of entry; (b) the referral to secondary inspection of persons within 21 those vehicles; (c) the detention of individuals within those vehicles; (d) the search of those vehicles and the 22 occupants of those vehicles, including the proper means of obtaining consent to search and what constitutes
23 consent to search; (e) the informing of suspects of their Constitutional rights; (f) the questioning of suspects
24 and witnesses. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo also requests all written or otherwise attainable information regarding
25 the training of ICE agents at ports of entry in California to detect or discover narcotics in vehicles entering
26 the United States, including any training offered to Border Patrol, INS, or officers of Homeland Security
27 Department, by the DEA or other law enforcement agencies or individuals.

28 //

1 (24) Names and Contact Information for All Agents in the Field at the Time of the Arrest. Ms.
2 Mendoza-Delgadillo requests the name and contact information for each of the agents in the field at the time
3 of the arrest. See United States v. Napue, 834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United States v. Tucker, 716 F.2d
4 576 (9th Cir. 1983) (failure to interview government witnesses by counsel is ineffective); United States v.
5 Cook, 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979) (defense has equal right to talk to witnesses). Ms. Mendoza-
6 Delgadillo also requests the name and contact information of every agent to the crime or crimes charged (or 7 any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will not be called as a government witness. United 8 States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453 (9th Cir. 1984).

9 (25) Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests
10 discovery regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or 11 future compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit understanding
12 relating to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any prospective government
13 witness and the government (federal, state and/or local). This request also includes any discussion with a 14 potential witness about or advice concerning any immigration benefits, any contemplated prosecution, or any 15 possible plea bargain, even if no bargain was made or the advice not followed.

16 (26) TECS Reports. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests all TECS reports, including reports pertaining 17 to all vehicle border crossings pertaining to the vehicle used in this case and any vehicles pertaining to her.

18 (27) Opportunity to Weigh, View and Photograph the Contraband. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo hereby 19 requests an opportunity to view, photograph, and weigh the contraband allegedly confiscated in this case.

20 (28) DEA 7 Form. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests a copy of the DEA 7 form that should indicate 21 the alleged weight and purity of the contraband in this case.

22 (29) Narcotics Detector Dog Information. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo moves for production of all
23 discoverable information about any Narcotics Detector Dogs (NDDs) used in this case, including information
24 regarding: (a) the qualifications of the NDDs and their handlers, (b) the training and experience of the NDDs
25 and their handlers, (c) the government's procedures regarding the treatment, training and rewarding of the 26 NDDs, (d) a detailed description of the exact method the NDDs in this case used to indicate an "alert" to
27 contraband, and (e) the location of the NDD and the vehicle when the NDD alerted, and (f) the NDD's
28 reliability.

(30) Residual Request. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo intends by this discovery motion to invoke her rights to discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Constitution and laws of the United States. This request specifically includes all subsections of Rule 16. Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests that the government provide her and her attorney with the above requested material sufficiently in advance of trial.

III.

THIS COURT SHOULD ORDER PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE

Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo requests the preservation of all physical evidence in this case. This includes any evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession, custody, or care of the government (or its private contractors) in this case. United States v. Riley, 189 F.3d 802, 806-08 (9th Cir.1999). This request includes, but is not limited to: (1) the vehicle in this case and its parts and all of its contents; (2) the results of any fingerprint analysis; (3) Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo's personal effects; (4) the agents' rough notes; (5) any radio broadcast, if it is recorded; (5) any evidence seized from Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo or any third party (i.e., material witnesses, co-defendants); (6) any alleged contraband seized in this case; (7) and any cellular phone(s). This request also includes any material or percipient witnesses who might be deported or otherwise likely to become unavailable (e.g. undocumented aliens and transients).

It is requested that the prosecutor be ordered to question all the agencies and individuals involved in the prosecution and investigation of this case to determine if such evidence exists, and if it does exist, to inform those parties to preserve any such evidence.

IV.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

Defense counsel has received 64 pages of discovery in this case and has not yet had the opportunity to complete important aspects of the investigation. As information comes to light, due to the government providing additional discovery in response to these motions or an order of this Court, Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo will almost certainly find it necessary to file further motions. It is, therefore, requested that defense counsel be allowed the opportunity to file further motions based upon information gained through the discovery process.

V.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Ms. Mendoza-Delgadillo respectfully requests that the Court grant the above motions.

Respectfully submitted,
